Mentorless Internship Program

Batch Name: MIP-NLP-02

Here's a glimpse of how your internship will unfold, and the exciting tasks that await you. Get ready to embark on this fulfilling journey, where your dedication will be rewarded with knowledge and recognition.

Task Breakdown and Scoring:

1. Article on SQL (20 Marks) - Submission Deadline: Day 07:

In the first phase of the internship, you will showcase your ability to articulate and share knowledge by writing a comprehensive article on any one topic related to Natural Language Processing.

Note: Plagiarism, copying from the internet and AI Generated Content is strictly prohibited and will result in disqualification from the internship.

2. Financial Sentiment Analysis (30 Marks) - Submission Deadline: Day 17:

This project applies advanced NLP to analyze financial data, predicting sentiment and assessing its impact on markets. Participants gain skills in NLP fundamentals, sentiment analysis, and dynamic modeling, merging finance and NLP for practical insights into textual financial data and market predictions.

3. Supreme court Judgement prediction (30 Marks) - Submission Deadline: Day 27:

This project predicts Supreme Court judgments, aiding legal professionals. Challenges include extracting insights from legal texts, building accurate models based on case details, and assessing model precision. The dataset, covering data preprocessing, feature engineering, and model evaluation, equips participants with skills in NLP, legal analysis, and interpretable AI.

Note: Go through the Problem Statement of both the projects to know more about the tasks you must perform.

4. Quiz on SQL Concepts (20 Marks) - Scheduled on Day 30:

A comprehensive quiz is scheduled for the 30th day of the internship to test your Technical skills. This quiz accounts for 20 marks and will cover various concepts of NLP. You have 3 days to prepare for quiz
